

HUGO

1. Sister Rose really likes The Invention of Hugo Carbet by Brian Selznick; she thinks it is a book everyone should read. If you have read the book, explain why you liked it – or didn't!
2. How did you feel when Hugo tells Isabelle that the earth does not have extra parts, and that this means that there is a reason for every person on earth to be here? What do you think your purpose in life is? Explain why God made YOU!
3. Georges talks a lot about the imagination in the movie. Do some research on Georges Méliès and why he had such respect for the power and gift of the human imagination, and write about it here: _____

4. Did you notice if the Christian faith was expressed in any way in the film? If so, how was faith shown? (The answer is written at the bottom of the page, but don't look!)
5. Did you like Sister Rose's review? If your opinion is different, or if Sister Rose forgot something important, write it here:

- Answers:
1. The care that Georges and his wife give their goddaughter, Isabelle
 2. The emphasis on family
 3. The crucifix hanging on the wall of Isabelle's room
