

THE AMAZING SPIDER-MAN™

1. All of the Spider-Man movies are about Peter Parker's character, that is, those traits that Christians call virtues. What does it mean to be a "person of character"? What does Uncle Ben tell Peter about being a man, a person of character?

2. Dr. Curt Connors wants to cure people, and he seems to have good intentions. He told Peter, "There's no reason to stop me!" What were the reasons why Peter and the police had to stop Dr. Connors?

3. In this film Peter has to grow up very quickly and take responsibility for his own actions and for the welfare of others. There is one night scene that shows Peter dressed as Spider-Man doing something thoughtful. It might seem insignificant, but it proves he is aware that someone might get hurt, so he does what?

4. Aunt May talks to Peter about secrets, and the police chief asks Peter to make a promise. What do they tell him? Which of the Ten Commandments give us guidance about secrets and promises?
