

THE ODD LIFE OF TIMOTHY GREEN

1. Timothy's parents wanted to have a child so badly that it seems the little pieces of paper were like seeds. When they planted the box, Timothy grew up right out of the garden! What signaled that the story is a fantasy rather than a true story?

---

---
2. The leaves on Timothy's legs are a plot device that directs most of the action in the story. List here all the ways you remember that leaves are part of the story:

---

---
3. When I watched the movie, I noticed that all the Christian values we find in Catholic Social Teaching are in "The Odd Life of Timothy Green."
  - a. Where in the movie does it show that every person is worthy of respect?

---
  - b. Name one scene where the movie shows that family, friends and community are important:

---
  - c. How will Jim's invention help the factory workers and their families have water, food, shelter, health care, and education?

---
- d. List the scenes in the movie that suggest that God made the earth, people, animals, and plants and wants us to care for these:

---
- e. Write about the parts of the movie that show care for the poor and vulnerable, especially children:

---
- f. How does the film support people's right to work?

---
- g. Would you agree that Timothy Green's job was to show people that we are all one family? Why or why not?

---
4. Do you agree with Sister Rose's review of "The Odd Life of Timothy Green"? If your opinion is different, or if Sister Rose forgot something important, write your own review here:

---

---

---

---

