

THE LUCKY ONE

1. The Lucky One” shows the reality of war through Logan’s story (Zac Efron). Do you know someone who went to war? List here two things you can do show kindness to people who have been to war and two things you can do to help people you know choose peace rather than fighting to solve problems.
2. Beth (Taylor Schilling) is a single mom who is divorced from her husband Keith (Jay R. Ferguson). What choices did Taylor make when she was in high school that changed the path of her life? What could she have done differently? Why does Keith use force to get his way? What could he do to set a good example for his son?
3. Everyone in the film goes to a Christian church, yet most of the characters don’t quite live up to what it means to follow the Ten Commandments. List the main characters and how each one would benefit from thinking more about how their faith can influence the choices they make. Be sure to explain why. (Hint: use the Ten Commandments to evaluate each character’s choices.)
