Heaven is for Real

1. Look up John 14:2 in your Bible. How does this Gospel verse reflect the story Todd Burpo tells in the film?
2. How do you imagine heaven? Draw a picture or write a poem, song, or paragraph about what meeting Jesus in heaven is like in your imagination or whom you want to meet when you get there. Be sure to explain your drawing, song, or poem.
3. At the end of the film, Todd talks to the people in the church about our belief in heaven, and living a life that shows it. What do you think Todd meant by this? Could he have been referring to what Jesus said in Matthew 7:12 or Luke 3:31? Find these Gospel passages, write them on separate pieces of paper, and illustrate them or make bookmarks for your friends.
4. Do you think there is a natural explanation for what Colton learned when he was visiting heaven with Jesus? His parents, Todd and Sonia, thought there might be a rational reason for what Colton was describing because it was so much like the Sunday school stories he had heard since he was a small child. Yet there were some things it seems he could not have known. What do you think?
