

1. Are you a Vernian? That is, someone who reads the novels of Jules Verne and likes them? If so, what do you like best about Jules Verne's stories? Why?
2. Sean is rude to his stepfather, Hank. Why do you think he seems so bitter? If he were your friend, what would you say to him to encourage him?
3. What do you think about Gabato and his daughter, Kailani? Do they seem to get along better than Sean and Hank? Or is Gabato only there in the plot for comic relief? Explain your views here:
4. Do you think Sean and Kailani might have a future together? Now that they are both in college at the end of the film, how might they develop their relationship in ways that reflect our Catholic Christian faith (even though they are probably not Catholic or even religious; pretend as though they are!)
5. Did you agree with Sister Rose's review? If your opinion is different, or if Sister Rose forgot something important, write it here:
